Ed Rommel, Who Won His Twenty-seventh Victory of the Year Yesterday

GRIFFMEN AND MACKS SPLIT BARGAIN BILL

Rommel Stops Francis and Zachary Holds Harris in Final Game at Shibe Park.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30.—The American League 1922 season closed here today, the Athletics and the Griffmen splitting the twin bill. The Griffmen won the first game, score 7 to 3. The Griffmen pounded Slim Harris for four runs in the fifth, Zachary making a home run in this frame which practically tied up the game. The Athletics were never able to overtake the Griffmen.

The second game was won by the Mackmen, Eddie Rommel winning and marking up his twenty-seventh victory of the season. Tillie Walker hit his thirty-seventh homer of the season in the fifth. The Athletics took a commanding lead in the fourth frame.

Although outscored, the Griffmen obtained seventeen safe blows. Rommel lightened up in the pinches and allowed the Griffmen to nick him after two were out or none on the bases.

The Washingtonians won the opening game behind Zachary by crashing four runs in the fifth inning. They went to bat on the wrong end of a 2-to-1 score. They were never again headed.

The big Griff southpaw opened that frame with a home run over the right field fence. Welch's muffed put Judge on second, Harris sacrificing him along to third. Dykes gobbled Rice's foul, but Goslin walked and stole second. Brower was purposely passed, and then Lapan, the new catcher from Little Rock, dropped a Texas leaguer back of second base. Judge and Goslin scored on that teasing rap, and Brower reached third, from where he tallied on a double steal with Lapan.

The second game was practically the reverse of the first. The A's staged a four-run assault upon Francis in the fourth inning and were never afterward caught.

Perkins opened the fateful frame with a double to left. Francis picked up Walker's attempted sacrifice and got Perkins at third, Johnston popped to LaMotte. Then, with two down, the run began.

Beeche and Hartman With St. Mary's Five

CUMBERLAND, Md., Sept. 30.—At a meeting of St. Mary's Big Five basketball team, "Grit" Beeche and Ernie Hartman, stars of the Taylor Athletic Association team last season, were announced as new members of the quint. St. Mary's won the amateur championship of the city last season with twenty-one out of twenty-three games played.

Leo Dwiggins, Joseph Fredericks, Sonny Curtis, and Johnny Griffin will be the other members of the team.

Arrangements are being made to secure the Taylor gym and practice will start next week. The season will open Thanksgiving Day.

Jacksonburg High Enters Grid Ranks

JACKSONBURG, W. Va., Sept. 30.—Jacksonburg High is the latest of the smaller high schools to enter football competition. Fifteen men are working out under the direction of Coach J. R. Lowther, formerly of West Virginia Wesleyan College. Getting a late start, Jacksonburg has not much of a schedule, and is anxious to arrange games with small high schools in its class. This is the fourth school in this section to take up football this year for the first time, the others being West Milford, Bridgeport, and Lost Creek.

MUST REBUILD TEAM.

BOSTON, Sept. 30.—Harry Frazee will have to rebuild his Red Sox team before another major league season opens or he won't have even the corporal's guard that attended the games this season.

The schedule follows: September 30, New Martinsville, away; October 7, Victory, at home; October 14, Shinnston, at home; October 21, Pennsboro, at home; October 28, Bridgeport, away; November 4, Weston, away; November 11, open; October 18, East Side, Fairmont, away.

Start Work This Week On Maryland Gym

COLLEGE PARK, Md., Sept. 30.—Construction of the $100,000 gymnasium and armory at the University of Maryland is expected to start the coming week, and to be completed in about four months. Work on the concrete stands in connection with the new athletic stadium also probably will get under way within the next few days, and be ready in four months. A running track already has been completed. The total cost of the stadium will be $80,000.

MAT SHOW HALTS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The inaugural wrestling show of the autumn season, scheduled for the Pioneer A. C. next Wednesday night, has been indefinitely postponed, owing to the inability of several of the principals to arrive here in time from their various tours of the Far West.

AND FABER QUIT.

After running up six consecutive victories, Urban Faber, of the White Sox, ended his winning ways by last-time defeat September 24 from the Senators.

BACK IN DANVILLE.

DANVILLE, Va., Sept. 30.—Herb Murphy will handle the local club in the Piedmont League next season. He was manager in 1921 and played third base with Charlotte this season.

HAUSER ON STREAK.

Joe Hauser, of the Athletics, after hitting safely his last eleven games, was stopped September 21, by a trio of White Sox hurlers. While getting his hits Joe smote thirteen hits in forty-five batting tries, for a percentage of .288.

Reds and Pirates Play Ten-Inning Deadlock

CINCINNATI, Sept. 30.—Cincinnati battled the Pittsburgh Pirates to a tie this afternoon, coming from behind in the ninth to equal the score, 7 to 7. Darkness called a halt in the tenth. Daubert's homer in the third was a feature. Score: Pitts., 2 1 2 0 1 0 1 0 0—7 14 0; Cin., 1 0 1 0 0 1 2 0 0—7 17 1.
Batteries—Morrison, Adams and Schmidt; Donohue, Keck, Maricle, Gillespie and Hargrave.

WHEELING FITS HOUSE.

WHEELING, W. Va., Sept. 30.—A house has been fitted up on Wheeling High athletic field to take care of all football injuries during the season. Aside from Wheeling High, Bethany College will stage its home games on this field.

TEAM NEEDS WEIGHT.

Eastern High needs heavy loads for the eleven says Coach Charlie Guyon. The big men failed to materialize this season, and in consequence of light blue and white will have a small team.

FAIRBURY COPPED IT.

In the play-off for the Nebraska State League title, Fairbury landed the honors by defeating Norfolk four straight games.

HE CANNOT COMPETE.

Bob Le Gendre, Georgetown's great field and track star, is entering in the dental school at the university, but cannot compete as he has performed four years.
